

LOCAL NEWS.

INUNDATION.—Patrick street, about its intersection with Queen, has presented for a week past a scene resembling that of Egypt during the inundation of the Nile. The Superintendent of Police, with a large force of men and carts was there last evening trying to improve the situation, but without very signal success; as the ground rises in every direction from that intersection. It appears that a drain comes in from far beyond the city limits, and which until lately conveyed the water along Alfred street to its intersection with Princess, where it turned and entered the square bounded by Alfred, Patrick, Princess and Queen, emptying into a ditch which ran up Queen to the drain which enters the sewer on Henry street, near King. Two years ago the residents of the neighborhood petitioned Council for a change in the route of the drain, which traversed private property, but no heed was given, it would seem, to the petition. Some time since the owner of one of the lots through which the water ran filled up his part of the water way, and Mr. Michael Smith wishing to improve his property on Queen and Patrick by paving, gutting, &c., applied to the proper authorities and got a grade, to reach which he had to use about a hundred loads of earth in filling. The consequence was that the water, during the late rains, having lost its usual outlet, spread out into a broad lake, submerging Mr. Smith's wood yard and completely surrounding the nice little dwelling house of a thrifty colored woman, so that she needed a boat for entrance or exit, besides making the neighboring streets impassable. Mr. Smith, we understand, has entered suit against the city for the damage done to his business, though some who passed by suggested to him that he would be largely benefited, as he could convert his wood yard into a skating rink when the cold weather came on. To-day the water is slowly passing off by a ditch which the Superintendent of Police has had cut up the south side of Queen street.

A FEMINE BATTLE AT THE THEATRE COMIQUE.—The Washington Star says: Jenny Javies, alias "Jennie with the light brown hair," formerly of Alexandria, was arraigned on the charge of assault and battery on Maud Hamilton. This scrimmage took place during the matinee performance at the Theatre Comique Wednesday afternoon. Maud told a pretty rough story on Jenny: how she broke an umbrella on her head, smashing her jauntily bonnet, and walloping her in the back, face, head, and all over until she called out for help. Officer Teagare testified to assisting Officer Pfaff in making peace and arresting the fight. Kate Howard testified that Jenny, after breaking her umbrella over her head, used her fists on Maud. The fuss grew out of a dispute about a young man for whom the belligerents have an affinity. For defense, Charles Goodman testified that Maud kissed some one on the stage, when Maud retorted her, and she turned around and called Maud a pretty hard name; and Jenny, who was sitting near by, told Maud not to use such names, and then the battle commenced, which was continued hot and fierce, the weapons being principally finger nails. Mr. Maniz testified that Maud Hamilton struck the first blow, and when the battle waxed hot, and the disturbance became general, he went in to assist the officers in quelling it.

SILVER WEDDING.—A "gay and festive" company assembled at the hospitable home of Capt. E. B. Powell, (formerly of this city) on Friday evening last, to celebrate his Silver Wedding, or more properly, the 25th anniversary of his married life. The host and hostess entertained their friends with a magnificent supper, and amid mirth, wit and genial good humor, time sped swift and joyous. Until the wedding hour of 12, when amid congratulations over the past and the present, and many good wishes that their wedded barque might safely ride the sea of life, until it found an anchorage in the calm and peaceful harbor of a "Golden Anniversary"—the company dispersed, leaving behind them numerous glittering souvenirs of the happy occasion—to awaken in the breast of the "silver gray" groom the sentiment of the poet—

"I saw her, and I loved her—
I sought her, and I woo;
Two dizen pleasant summers,
And more, since then have run;
And half a dozen voices
Now prattle by her side,
Remind me of the autumn
When she became my bride."
—Loudoun Mirror.

BOAT RACES.—"Several accounts of races between steamboats on the Potomac have recently appeared in the Alexandria papers. One of these coolly states that a late race having been a tie, another contest would have to take place to decide the question of speed. Presuming these reports to be true, we cannot but believe that these contests are indulged in with the knowledge of the proprietors of the vessels. The practice is conceded to be highly dangerous, and has been the direct cause of many terrible disasters. Let it be stopped before the community is shocked by another wholesale loss of human life." The races alluded to by the Washington Star, from which the above extract is taken, were neither races in the correct use of that term, nor by the intention of the captains of the respective boats; nor was more steam carried by either boat than she was entitled to carry; nor was any other than the usual fuel, and the usual quantity of it used. The boats start from this city about the same hour in the morning, and as they both run down the river as far as Quantico, and are of pretty nearly the same rate of speed, and so keep close together, the passengers on them imagine a race is in progress, and take great interest in its result, but there is no more danger of an accident than if the boats were running alone.

C. & O. CANAL COMPANY.—The monthly meeting of the President and Board of Directors of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company was held at Annapolis yesterday. There were present besides A. P. Gorman, the President, Messrs. Burter, Biser, Bannan, Stake and Meredith.

The following report for the past month was submitted by the President: Accrued revenue, $60,566.12; ordinary current expenses for operations for maintaining canal, pay of officers, &c., $17,360.83; net expenses for operating wharves at Cumberland, $1,113.77. Extraordinary repairs, dredging and material for water use, $2,825.92; total expenses, $21,300.52. This leaves a net revenue of $39,255.60. Coal tonnage for the month of October, 112,094 tons, an increase over the tonnage of October, 1874, of 8,579 tons; balance to the credit of the company, $108,000.71. The Board appropriated $30,985 to pay the overdue coupons on the preferred construction bonds next in order due July 1, 1883, which will be paid at the Banking House of Alexander Brown & Sons, Baltimore, on and after the 17th inst.

NOVEMBER 12. A. D. 1493, Columbus arrived at Navidad on the north side of Hispaniola, where he had left a colony on his first voyage, and had the mortification to find that the people were all dead and the destroyed. On the same day, in 606, Boniface III., Pope, died. He established the superiority of the popes over the patriarchs of Constantinople.

FIRE.—The dwelling house belonging to Thomas E. Taylor, at Mead's tan yard, was burned on Wednesday, the 3d instant. Fire accidental, from the burning of brush too near the house. Loss some $800 to $1,000. Insured in the Loudoun Mutual for $800.—Loudoun Mirror.

TWO STORIES.—The Cumberland Times of Wednesday last said that Margaret Castle, the woman missing from the canal boat Eusemker, had been found wandering about in the woods, near the Point of Rocks, but the Washington Star of yesterday says: "The body of Margaret Castle, who has been missing from the canal boat Eusemker since October 30, was found in the canal, near Ray's dock, this morning. It is supposed that she fell overboard on the day named, and that her body has been lying under one of the boats lying in that vicinity ever since. On Sunday last the water was drawn off the Georgetown level of the canal and a pretty general search made for the deceased, but which was suspended upon the receipt of news from the Point of Rocks that she had been seen at that place. The coroner has been notified and will hold an inquest this afternoon."

POLICE REPORT.—The following cases have been reported at police headquarters since yesterday afternoon: Benjamin Boswell, for an assault upon his mother, was dismissed with a reprimand. James Porter, for stabbing Pat Gathright, both colored, was brought out of jail, but his trial was postponed until this afternoon. The same man arrested and dismissed yesterday with a reprimand, for creating a disturbance in a down town restaurant, was afterwards rearrested for a repetition of the offence, and was fined and discharged. A colored boy named Temple Lucas was looked up for throwing stones on the street. But one lodger was accommodated at the station house last night.

ASSESSMENT FOR MALT USED.—A deputation of the United States Brewers' Association, consisting of Henry H. Reuter, President of the National Brewers' Association; Andrew Leicht, of Chicago; Gustavus Aergan, of Philadelphia; Wm. A. Miles, of New York; Louis Muth, of Baltimore; Robert Porter, of Alexandria, and Messrs. Pinoff and Senade, Secretary and Counsel of the Association, yesterday had a hearing before the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with regard to assessments upon brewers for malt used in excess of two and a half bushels of malt for one barrel of beer. A memorial presented against the injustice of such assessment was argued. The Commissioner has reserved a decision.

CORPORATION COURT. Judge E. M. Lowe presiding.—Cochran vs. Thomas' executrix et al.; chancery; decree for payment of the balance in hand of commissioner of sale, after first paying taxes to the complainant. Watkins' administratrix vs. Walker, wife, et al.; chancery; exceptions to Commissioner Clifton's report filed by defendants. Hooe's executrix vs. Ho ff et al.; chancery; Rodolph Clauhton appointed receiver to collect rents of real estate. Lloyd's administrator vs. Powell et al.; chancery; bill filed; answer of adult defendant antedated; guardian ad litem appointed for infant defendants; answer of guardian ad litem filed, and cause docketed.

REV. MR. GARDNER, of the M. E. Church South, has been absent from his charge for the past fortnight, undergoing an operation upon his eyes, the sight of which has been very much affected for some time by pterygia. He is in Baltimore, under the treatment of Dr. Chisholm. The operation, we are glad to hear, is not considered a very serious or severe one, and we hope he may be speedily restored, and returned to his field of labor.—Loudoun Mirror.

EQUIPAGES.—The blue brooks and elegantly liveried drivers at the marriage at Christ Church yesterday were not, as some supposed, brought from Washington for the occasion. On the contrary, they came from the establishment of Mr. W. H. Thornton, and under this gentleman's supervision, the fact is more firmly established than ever that Alexandria need not go beyond her own limits to find equipages, with all their appointments, suited to the most fastidious wants of her people.

NOMINATING MEETINGS.—The Conservatives will hold meeting in the Second, Third, and Fourth wards to-morrow night, to nominate candidates to fill vacancies existing in the City Council from those wards. Some dissatisfaction is expressed at this arrangement, primary elections being suggested by some, and a postponement of the meetings until Monday night by others, but, upon consultation and reflection, it has been determined to adhere to the original intention, and hold the meetings to-morrow night.

BREAK IN THE C. & O. CANAL.—It is reported that the recent rains have resulted in washing out a culvert on the four mile level of the Chesapeake and Ohio canal, and that traffic in the canal will thereby be delayed for ten days or two weeks. [The above is from the Washington Star of yesterday. The break did occur, but it was slight, has since been repaired, and the boats that arrived here this morning passed over its site and report the canal in good order.]

FOURTH WARD RADICALS.—The Radical of the Fourth Ward will hold a meeting at the colored Odd Fellows Hall, to-night, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the Board of Aldermen. It is understood that an effort will be made to influence the proposed meeting to nominate Mr. S. F. Beach, and should that effort be successful, and so acceptable a candidate as the gentleman be selected, it is probable he will have no opposition.

WASHINGTON AND OHIO RAILROAD.—The grading of the extension of the Washington and Ohio Railroad on its western section has been finished to the point selected for the depot on Mr. F. Purcell's farm. Hands are still at work at Scotland cut. When this heavy piece of work is done the road will be ready for the iron to the above mentioned point.—Loudoun Enterprise.

ACCIDENT TO A RAILROAD MAN.—The Washington Star says: This morning, about 9 o'clock, as an engine of the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad was backing down 6 h street to the depot, John Kirk, of Alexandria, one of the hands working on the track, was struck and knocked off, having his leg badly bruised and his head cut.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD.—Mayor Kemper, in accordance with invitations received from Memphis and St. Louis, has appointed Messrs. John S. Barbour, Lewis McKenzie, Linde Kent, and J. B. Smoot, delegates to the conventions to be held in those cities in favor of the building of a Southern Pacific railroad.

THE INCENDIARY CASE.—Messrs. C. E. Stuart and S. Ferguson Beach have been employed as counsel for the defendants in the late incendiary case, which, it is understood, will come on for trial at the next term of the Corporation Court, during which time the prisoners will remain in jail.

DEATH OF J. E. DOUGLASS.—Mr. J. E. Douglass died yesterday afternoon, at the residence of his uncle, A. J. Fleming, esq., of consumption. He had been ill for some time past and his death was not unexpected. Previous to his illness, Mr. Douglass was a well known merchant in this city and in Richmond.

DECLINES A PASTORAL CALL.—Rev. Henderson Suter of Liberty, Bedford county, Va., has declined the call lately extended to him by the Vestry of Christ Church in this city.

DEER.—The Loudoun Mirror says that one day last week, Mr. Elgar Burch, jr., shot and killed a fine deer, that he found feeding among his cattle in a field near the Big Spring, about two miles from Leesburg. The animal was a buck, very fat, and weighed about 150 pounds.

POSTAL.—William H. Gill has been appointed postmaster at Bloomfield, Loudoun county, vice J. J. Hill, resigned; and John A. Bower vice J. B. Gill, appointed postmaster at Gaines Cross Roads, Rappahannock county, vice J. J. Miller, moved away.

DECLINES A NOMINATION.—Mr. James P. Coleman, whose name was announced yesterday as a candidate for the Common Council from the 2nd Ward, declines to allow his name to be used in that connection.

Disaster.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—The man belonging to the crew of the brig Toronto, who was picked up at sea and brought to Brooklyn by the Centaur, is a native of Manila. He says the Toronto was at Navassa station in guano in September, when the terrific gales arose, and in consequence of their violence the captain determined to put to sea. After they had been out while the brig became unmanageable, and they decided to abandon her. The vessel's company, of fourteen persons, took to the long boat. Up to this point the man (who was in a tolerably low condition when rescued by the Centaur, having been twenty-one days at sea, in an open boat), gave a tolerably connected statement of the occurrences, but after describing the lowering of the launchboat, he became confused in his language, and it was difficult to understand what he was attempting to describe. It was gathered, however, that, at the time the crew got into the boat, it was driven against the side of the ship, and was filled with water. The oars were washed out, and it seems that seven men also went overboard and were swimming about near the boat, supporting themselves on the oars and pieces of the wreck. The seven remaining were unable to help them, and clinging to the boat, gradually drifted out of sight of the ship and their drowning comrades. Being asked what had become of his six comrades who were with him in the boat he could give no clear answer. He said, that, after they had been ten days in the boat they began to walk around and around, and this way and that way. The mate, he said, stood up in the bows one day and said, "Good bye, good bye, and sprang into the sea. They had no provisions or water in the boat, but it rained almost every night, and as the bottom of the boat was clean and tight they were enabled to drink the water that fell into it. They also caught a few fish, and a great many sea birds and ate them. A kind of sea weed, too, which they found floating in considerable quantities, served them as food. From the vague and confused way in which the narrative of the later incidents was told it seems as if the man had become temporarily insane from fatigue and exposure.

Moody and Sankey.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—This morning a number of ministers held a meeting in Lay College, adjoining the Brooklyn Tabernacle, and spent an hour in prayer for God's blessing and aid. There were over one hundred clergymen from various churches present. An hour after they entered the Tabernacle and took seats in front, which had been reserved for them by the ushers. When they had become seated Mr. Moody called upon the ushers to close the doors, that they might have a few moments in silent prayer undisturbed. The building, at the close of prayer, was soon filled to its utmost capacity, and then Mr. Moody said that the gates be closed so that no more be admitted. His prayer was for blessing, and that this day of fasting be a day of searching the heart for sin. Rev. H. W. Beecher arose and leaning against the platform offered prayer. This is the first time he has taken a prominent part in the meeting. His voice showed agitation.

Mutiny.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—A special dispatch to the Times from Paris contains the following: The British Legion, Capt. Hatfield, left Anvers on the 23d of October for New York. On the 31st, when off the Island of Oeuvo, east of France, part of the crew mutinied and murdered the captain, mate and boatswain. Bottles containing papers begging for succor were thrown overboard by the portion of the crew which did not participate in the atrocity, and these were picked up on the French coast. A vessel was accordingly sent out, which overtook the Legion. Five men and a boy were on board the latter, four of whom are suspected of complicity in the crime. Six Greek sailors escaped in a small boat. The Legion will probably be taken into St. Nazaire, and the accused sailors delivered up to the British Government.

The City of Waco.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—To-day's Times says the steamship City of Waco had on board 300 cases of petroleum, in defiance of the law. It says its reporter yesterday saw at the Custom House the manifest of the City of Waco, from which it appears that 300 cases of petroleum were shipped on her from "C. H. M. & Co." (C. H. Mallory & Co.) to the P. & P. Gaslight Company of Galveston. The remainder of the cargo consisted of dry goods, hats, groceries, provisions, notions, hardware, brick, iron castings, tinware, glass and other general merchandise. The reporter's attention was called to the fact that the word "petroleum" in the copy of the manifest was slurred over in such a way that it is difficult to make out what it is.

Failure.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—Sylvester M. Beard, Sons & Co., tea, coffee, and spices, have suspended. The cause of the disaster dates back two years, when the former firm of Beard & Cummings failed, with $400,000 liabilities. The elder Mr. Beard asked for an extension on $150,000 of this amount, which was granted and business was continued, the old firm having been dissolved by the present members, and the $150,000 was paid. The present liabilities are about $300,000, but the assets are also considerable.

The liabilities of Geo. E. Way, who failed on Wednesday are $70,000, and his assets are $30,000.

Smallpox.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—Smallpox prevails to an alarming extent in the 16th ward of Brooklyn and vaccination is in active progress, though much opposition thereto is manifested by the inhabitants of the infected section, who are mostly Germans. The sanitary police arrested a German lager beer seller yesterday for securing three persons sick with smallpox in a room adjoining his shop, which was kept open and he served to customers by his barkeeper, who attended his business of waiting on customers with that of nurse. The sanitary police in their rounds found most of the population engaged in manufacturing clothing and were working on garments, while some of the family lay sick with smallpox—sometimes in the same apartment.

Weather Probabilities.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12, 11 a. m. For the Middle States, falling, barometer, southeast to northwest winds, warmer, clear or partly cloudy weather, and followed by rising barometer, and westerly winds.

American Public Health Association.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 12.—The Association met at 9 o'clock. After the admission of several new members, the executive committee were instructed to memorialize Congress in favor of such legislation as will bring about a proper co-operation between the General Government and the several State Governments for a uniform and efficient system of the registry of births, deaths, and marriages. The existing of the association from the first to the last have been well attended.

Earthquake.

KNOXVILLE, TENN., Nov. 12.—There was a distinct shock of earthquake here at two o'clock this morning, causing buildings to sway, and rumbling like an explosion, coming from the West rolling gradually east. The shock was the heaviest ever felt here, lasting ten seconds.

Beneficence.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 12.—Mr. R. E. Springer, has offered to give an additional $20,000 towards building a music hall, on condition that the $40,000 still lacking to complete the full amount necessary is subscribed within thirty days. This makes Springer's donation amount to $145,000.

Fire.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—A fire broke out today in the kitchen of the Union Club House, corner of Fifth avenue and Twenty-first street, and the flames were not suppressed before damage was done to the amount of $25,000 by fire and water.

The Vice President.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—The health of Mr. Wilson has so far improved that he now considered out of danger.

Naval.

FORT MONROE, VA., Nov. 12.—The U. S. steamer Worcester, flagship of the North Atlantic squadron, arrived here last night from Aspinwall. All well.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Various colored female societies, dressed in their respective regalia, attended the funeral of a deceased sister, Harriet Crump, this afternoon.

There are at present confined in the jail of Loudoun County, mostly for petit offences, nine prisoners, at a cost to the county of 40 cents a day, or $25.20 per week.

Rev. A. B. Atkins, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, Georgetown, has tendered his resignation, to take effect on the 30th instant. He has accepted a call to Y. nkers, New York.

The Loudoun Enterprise says: "We are having splendid weather just now, and the growing wheat is looking finely. The corn crop, the finest raised in Loudoun for many a year, is being cribbed in good order." The alarm of fire about half past 4 o'clock this evening, which brought out the entire Fire Department, and attracted large crowds of people on King street, was caused by the burning of a chimney at the upper end of that street.

Mr. Wren, of the county, was assaulted by some colored men near one of the brick yards there yesterday and accused by them of stealing a whip which he had bought but a short time before from another colored man. The assailants were fined by a colored justice, before whom they were carried.
